

ελεειν-ροδων αυτων

Βαριου

1 AND there vvere in the Church vvhich vvas at Antioche, Prophets and Doctōrs, among vvhom vvas Barnabas, & Simon that vvas called Niger, and Lucius of Cyréne, and Manahen vvhō vvas the foster-brother of Herod the Tetrarch, and Saul.
 2 † And e as they vvere " ministering to our Lord, and fasting, the holy Ghost said : " Separate me Saul and Barnabas vnto the vvorke, vvherto I haue taken them.
 3 † Then they " fasting and praying, and " imposing hands vpō them, dimissed them.
 4 † And they being " sent of the holy Ghost, vvent to Se-5 leucia, and thence sailed to Cypres. † And vvhē they vvere come to Salamīna, they preached the vword of God in the 6 synagogs of the Ievves. And they had Iohn also in their ministerie. † And vvhē they had vvalked through out the vvhole island as farre as Paphos, they found a certaine man 7 that vvas a magician, a false-prophete, a Ievv, vvhose name vvas ` Bat-iesu', † vvhō vvas vwith the Proconsul Sergius Paulus a vwise man. He sending for Barnabas & Saul, 8 desired to heare the vword of God. † But Elymas the magician (for so is his name interpreted) resisted them, seeking to auert 9 the Proconsul from the faith. † But Saul, othervvise Paul, 10 replenished vwith the holy Ghost, looking vpon him, † said:
 O ful of al guile, and al deceit, sonne of the deuil,emie of 11 al iustice, thou ceaseft not to subuert the right vvaies of our Lord. † And novv behold the hand of our Lord vpon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seing the sunne vntil a time. And forthvwith there fel dimnelle and darkenelle vpon him, and going about he sought some body that vwould giue him his 12 hand. † Then the Proconsul, vvhē he had seen that vvhich vvas done, beleued, marueling at the doctrine of our Lord.
 13 † And vvhē Paul and they that vvere vwith him had sailed from Paphos, they came to Pergè in Pamphylia. And Iohn 14 depàrting from them, returned to Hierusalem. † But they passing through Pergè, came to Antioche in Pisidia : and en-tring into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbath, they 15 fate dovne. † And after the Iesson of the Lavv and the Prophets, the princes of the Synagogue sent to them, saying, Men brethren, if there be among you any sermon of exhortation to the people, speake.

And